Training Opportunities at Holme Pierrepont

The official Nations Training programme for the 2009 European Canoe Slalom Championships will be held between Saturday 23rd May and Wednesday 27th May 2008

Teams wishing to train at all other times outside of these events will need to request and pay for additional 'Exclusive Use' or 'Casual Use' training session.

The BCU Canoe Slalom Committee is currently planning their Competition Calendar for the 2009 season and it is anticipated that events will be made available for Visiting Teams and Competitors to train and compete at Holme Pierrepont, prior to these Championships. This calendar will be published by 29th November 2008.

To enable co-ordination of all these bookings, all Teams are requested to make bookings for all additional training sessions via:

Potential Upgrade to Holme Pierrepont White Water Course

Proposals for an upgrade to the White Water Course are currently being investigated by Nottingham County Council, Sport England and the British Canoe Union. Should this upgrade be given approval; the course will be closed for a period during the winter. A decision on whether these developments go ahead will be made by 31st October 2008
